All construction projects have the potential to break down. Having strategies to avoid broken projects, and to fix them, are fundamental tools for the savvy contractor. CAEP Associate Members and national construction lawyers, Robert O'Brien Esq., Kathleen Morley., Esq. and Dan Fierstein, Esq. of Cohen Seglias Pallas Greenhall & Furman PC, will be with us to address key contract concepts and provide examples to help you negotiate and modify problematic contract clauses. Robert, Kathleen, and Dan will identify time-tested pre-construction and construction-phase strategies for profitable projects. They will provide concrete examples of how to notify, preserve, and prove construction claims.
